Private Mentoring Proposal for Youth

To: Parent / Guardian
Subject: Private Mentoring Proposal for Your Son

Dear Parent or Guardian,

I am writing to propose a private mentoring program for your son, who stands at a pivotal point in his personal and academic development. This proposal outlines three tailored packages, each designed to foster his growth in key areas such as self-awareness, critical thinking, and goal-setting.

Overview of Private Mentorship Program

The program will provide your son with one-on-one coaching sessions that will focus on:

- Personalized advice and guidance
- Skill-building activities
- Goal-setting and attainment strategies
- Substance abuse awareness
- Enhancement of critical thinking skills
- Cultivation of self-motivation and self-awareness

Methodology

Each session will be structured to maximize engagement and learning. Activities will include interactive discussions, practical exercises, and reflective tasks. I will work closely with your son to understand his unique needs and aspirations, tailoring each session to align with his personal goals.

Package Options

All packages include a brief monthly progress report. Your investment includes transportation, and training materials. Meals are not included and are to be reimbursed. These packages can be customized.

Package One: Six-Month Comprehensive Package (12 sessions)

Duration: 6 months

Frequency: Sessions twice a month (approx. 2 hours per session)

Focus: Comprehensive development in all key areas with a gradual and in-depth approach. Includes development of long-term personal and academic goals.

Additional Benefits: Bi-monthly progress reports, two parent-mentor conversations.

Investment: $3500

Package Two: Three-Month Intensive Package (6 Sessions)

Duration: 3 months

Frequency: Sessions twice a month (approx. 2 hours per session)

Focus: Intensive development in selected key areas with emphasis on short-term goal setting and achievement.

Additional Benefits: Monthly progress reports, one parent-mentor conversation.

Investment: $1500

Package Three: Five-Week Focused Package (5 sessions)

Duration: 5 weeks

Frequency: Weekly sessions (2 hours per session)

Focus: Targeted development in one or two key areas, such as goal-setting, critical thinking or self-awareness.

Additional Benefits: Ongoing verbal progress reports

Investment: $500

Conclusion

This mentoring program is designed to empower your son to navigate his teenage years with confidence and clarity. My approach is centered on building trust, understanding, and respect, allowing him to openly express himself and explore his potential.

I would be honored to work with your son and support him on his journey towards personal growth and self-discovery. I do require a 24 hour cancellation notice. I will reschedule up to two missed sessions. Please feel free to contact me to discuss these options further or to customize a package that best suits his needs. I can be reached at (631) 767-9163 or chaplainanthonyjames@gmail.com.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to the possibility of working with your family.

Warm Regards,
